TALENT TECHNOLOGY'S HIREDESK ON THE "ATS HOTLIST" AGAIN

HireDesk Recognized by Workforce Magazine's Hot List of Applicant Tracking Systems for the Second Consecutive Year

Vancouver B.C., — August 12, 2008 — Talent Technology Corporation, award-winning provider of applicant tracking software solutions, and component recruiting technology, today announced that its HireDesk product has been recognized by Workforce Magazine, ranking it on the "Hot List" of applicant tracking systems – for the second consecutive year.

According to Jade Bouelle, Talent Technology's Chief Executive Officer, "It is great to receive this type of recognition from one of our industry's thought leaders. There are a tremendous number of solution providers in this market and to have made this list two consecutive years is a tribute to the breadth of the HireDesk solution."

"The Hot List places us among the leaders of our industry and shows that Talent Technology has one of the largest installed bases of clients and our HireDesk product is recognized for its broad range of functionality," says Praj Patel, Executive Vice President, Marketing.

From its ability to support candidate outreach, execute intelligent search of candidate pools, be configured to virtually unlimited numbers of recruiting workflows, support candidate screening and reporting and support various legal compliance requirements, the HireDesk system has been designed to support both agency recruiters and corporate human resource departments looking to gain a competitive edge by sourcing, screening, selecting the best and brightest candidates – effectively and efficiently.
