TALENT TECHNOLOGY LAUNCHES WEBINAR WITH H3.COM

Talent Technology Presents “Recruiting Revolution: Web 2.0 – Webinar Number Three” with Co-presenter Hans Gieskes – Former President of Monster.com

Vancouver B.C., — August 19, 2008 — Talent Technology Corporation, an award-winning provider of applicant tracking software and component recruiting technology, today announced that its Director of Industry Partnerships - Greg Moran, was featured along with Hans Gieskes, Former President of Monster.com and Founder of H3.com, during the third webinar in the Recruiting Revolution Web 2.0 series of presentations. Having taken place on August 19th, this webinar was aimed at both corporate and third party recruiters, providing them with the information they need to identify, recruit, and retain the best and brightest talent using the latest Web 2.0 technology.

“The competition for talent is growing increasingly fierce, and will only continue to intensify as the demand for highly skilled professionals grows stronger and the labor market tightens,” says Praj Patel, Executive Vice President of Marketing, Talent Technology. “This webinar series is a great way to educate our audience on some of the major trends and challenges facing the recruiting market this year, and deepen the knowledge about HireDesk applicant tracking solutions, and how these tools can help them find and retain talent in such a tight market.”

HireDesk is the industry’s first complete recruitment and hiring solution to integrate strategic, best practices implementation, competency-based selection tools, a full-featured talent management system, legal compliance toolkits, and automated post-hire performance tracking into one, total solution. HireDesk applicant tracking systems were designed by professionals who understand the unique challenges of both agency recruiters and mid-size corporate organizations. Helping agencies of all sizes and companies of 1,000 to 10,000 find productive, high-performance employees, HireDesk solutions lead you through all stages in the recruitment, screening, selection and hiring process in an easy-to-use, on-demand solution.

HireDesk is a robust applicant tracking solution that will decrease time-to-hire and cost-per-hire, while integrating candidate generation, competency profiling, candidate assessment, quality-of-hire, and legal compliance tools into one user-friendly desktop.

About H3.com

H3.com is a low-cost alternative to expensive executive search firms. The tool enables you to source top talent by offering a $5,000 (or greater) referral reward to your social network. When a referred candidate is hired, the people along the referral path share the $5,000+ cash reward. H3.com handles all of the logistics of communicating and the administration of disbursing the referral reward. Founded by Hans Gieskes, former president of Monster.com, H3.com was formed in 2004 with the support of the Cambridge Innovation Center. Designed to track and manage referrals through a patented process, H3.com streamlines and brings order to the traditional and proven practice of referral hiring.

H3.com holds the patent for facilitating and tracking personal referrals made via electronic networks. The technology tracks the referral process as it passes from person-to-person via e-mail and identifies the chain of referrers taking part in the hire so that the cash incentive can be appropriately rewarded.
