

reed.co.uk Engages Job Seekers with Talemtry

Reed Executive PLC, the UK's leading specialist recruitment and HR services provider, partners with Talent Technology to enhance the experience for jobseekers, who submit 30,000 job applications daily, and for more than 2,000 recruiters and 15,000 employers who tap into the job board.

"Talent Technology's Talemtry offered an attractive package that allowed us to trade the challenges of our current system for a simple per-transaction model."

Challenge

Improve experience of applicants and recruiters using www.reed.co.uk, the UK's leading recruitment site and job board.

Solution

Talemtry replaces outdated technology, giving Reed an on-demand hosted and resume data extraction.

Results

Eliminated manual processing of resumes, dramatically improving the ease of applying for jobs, and leading to a higher number of quality applicants.
